Muscari Mixed

The wonderful Mixed Muscari is a perfect variety of mixed light blue to dark blue muscari. If you want to create a diverse display, choose the Mixed Muscari. A spring bedding isn't complete without any muscari. And why choose between light blue or dark blue muscari if you can have both at the same time? One of the most sold items from our bulk bulbs, gardeners love the Mixed Muscari.

About the Mixed Muscari

With 100 bulbs per bag, these bulbs make every spring border look amazing. These early bloomers show their faces in mid-spring. Mixed Muscari shows all shades of the color blue. From pure white to sky blue to dark blue and purple. For a serene look in the garden, this is the right mix. If you don't like too many different colors in the garden, this mix is just ideal. Plant these spring garden flowers in a sunny, partly shady spot.

How to grow the Mixed Muscari

The flowers of the Mixed Muscari grow 6" (15 cm) tall and must be planted in soil 3" (7,5 cm) deep. If you want to create a beautiful carpet of sea blue little flowers, plant the Mixed Muscari with 15 bulbs per square feet. The flowers naturalize easy, they increase every year. This makes the Mixed Muscari beloved among gardeners. Also, the flowers are safe to animals, the blooms are deer resistant.
