- The blooms are excellent for cut flowers
- The stems are strong and sturdy
- The foliage is deep green and deeply cut
- The peony bush makes a spread of 2 feet (60 cm)

Care for Peony Eden's Perfume

The bare-root peonies need to be planted in fall, or in spring. We advise planting in fall, so the plant has enough time to establish and grow strong roots. The plant needs 2-3 years before it starts flowering. But it is definitely worth the wait. After the plant has settled down in your garden, you will enjoy the lovely fragrant flowers each year. At De Vroomen, we adore the lovely Peony Eden's Perfume for its appearance and its smell.
